

MAGNOLIA SCHOOL

1st Grade Summer Reading Assignment

Welcome to Magnolia School! We are looking forward to welcoming your daughters to 1st grade.

Poetry

Memorize the following poem and be prepared to recite it at school.

"Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary"
by Mother Goose

Mary, Mary, quite contrary
How does your garden grow?
With silver bells and cockleshells
And pretty maids all in a row.

Illustration: Complete an illustration of this poem on the page which follows titled "Illustration of Poem" and bring it with you on the first day of school.

Reading

Read the following story (either independently or with a parent) and complete the activities that follow.

The Ugly Duckling by Hans Christian Andersen, as adapted and illustrated by Jerry Pinkney

ISBN: 978-0-688-15932-0

Activity & Illustration: Complete the activity page and draw a picture your favorite part of the story. Bring both pages with you on the first day of school.

(Please Note: While Summer Reading Journals are required for grades 2-8, our young Monarchs will not be using a journal for these assignments. They are to complete them on the given pages.)

Illustration of Poem

The Ugly Duckling

I got this book from:

I read this book...

By myself

With: _____

of pages:

Star
Rating:

Favorite characters:

This book is...
(circle one)

fiction

non-fiction

I read this book...

slowly

quickly

Would I read it again? (circle one)

yes

no

Would I recommend it? (circle one)

yes

no

This book made me:

- Learn something
- Feel excited
- Fall asleep
- Happy
- Bored
- Laugh
- Sad

The Ugly Duckling Illustration

Draw a picture of your favorite scene from the story.

